GREETINGS FROM BUTEO BOOKS IN SHIPMAN, VIRGINIA, USA

Catalog No. 27 contains a selection of rare and out-of-print titles from our extensive inventory of ornithology books. Most books are one-of-a-kind; reserving books by telephone is recommended. Descriptions are minimal to save space, so don't hesitate to call or write if you have any questions. We have many ornithology titles in stock which are not listed in this catalog and actively search for out-of-print books.

On page 18 you will find a selection of New and Forthcoming Books. Prices and due dates are subject to change. You may also view our complete listings on our website: <http://www.buteobooks.com>. Buteo Books continues to stock the most extensive selection of new and out of print bird books to be found in the world.

We purchase fine ornithology books, either single volumes or complete libraries. Call or write if you have books you wish to sell or trade.

Volumes I - IV. London: H.F. & G. Witherby Ltd., 1927-1939. Together with Volume V: Conclusion, and Survey of Every Species, by Lord MEDWAY and David R. WELLS, 1976. 125 plates by H. GRÖNVOLD. TEG. All volumes in original cloth with dust jackets, considerable wear to jackets of volumes I and II. Edges gnawed by rodents on volumes III and IV. Five volumes. $1,250.00
Robinson died in 1929, and the work was continued by his successor, Chasen, who lost his life during the fall of Singapore in 1942. The manuscript for Volume V and the plates were presumed to have been lost. But in 1964, both plates and text were discovered in the British Museum (Natural History), and formed the basis for the concluding volume. It is especially difficult to find a complete set of this important regional avifauna.
